

Local Resources for Personal Finance Coverage

Financial Planning Association® (FPA®) is the leadership and advocacy organization that represents more than 25,000 financial planners nationwide. FPA has 96 chapters across the U.S, including a chapter in Maryland with 324 financial planner members. In addition to being able to quickly connect you with national FPA leaders and experts, local FPA members can serve as immediate sources for your articles and stories. Below are local subject-matter experts on a variety of topics who are represented among the local FPA membership:
